

2024 Programme

Jan 10th	Click and Natter	Jul 10th	Click and Natter
Jan 18th	The Mexican Charrro - JP Stones JP is lives in Mexico. His Zoom presentation on documentary photography will show how to tell a story with images.	18th Jul	'Minimal' Your interpretation of a photography genre focussed on simplicity.
Jan 25th	'Calendar Shots' and AGM In preparation of our 2025 calendar members are invited to submit their images of local scenes they would like to see in the calendar.	25th Jul	Northampton University Riverside Campus An early evening meeting to photograph some of the interesting buildings in the area. There's also the River Nene and Becket's Park just next door.
Feb 14th	Click and Natter	Aug 14th	Click and Natter
Feb 22nd	'Still Life' A chance for members to show the skills learnt at last September's Knowledge Night.	August Challenge	Details to be announced With no formal meetings in August members are set a photographic challenge.
Feb 29th	Monochrome - Chris Upton A return visit by Chris to give his presentation explaining why he is drawn towards the simple beauty of monochrome	Sep 11th	Click and Natter
Mar 13th	Click and Natter	19th Sep	● 'Never Mind the Weather' ● Plenty of scope here for your weather photographs.
Mar 21st	● 'Your Numbers Up' ● Not and ominous warning, just your photographic interpretation.	26th Sep	Skills Surgery An informal Knowledge Night meeting where anyone can come along and ask photography related questions. .
Apr 10th	Click and Natter	Oct 9th	Click and Natter
April 18th	'Monochrome' Hopefully inspired by Chris Upton's presentation it's an opportunity to show your images on this ever popular theme.	12th & 13th Oct	Photo Show Our 10th Annual Photography Exhibition. WHP's major event of the year.
April 25th	Make your own Photo Book This Knowledge Night will explain what photo book ways and means are available and how to compile one.	24th Oct	'Seen Better Days' Weathering, disrepair, decrepitude, dereliction, ruinous, decay, rack and ruin, deterioration, delapidation...
May 9th	Harlestone Wild Garlic Walk A photo shoot to a Wild Garlic Wood to capture the white carpet of flowers if not the odour. Joining details TBA.	31st Oct	Evening of Wildlife - Nigel Spencer Nigel will present his talk in which he will showcase all sorts of species and habitats from some of the many places he has visited.
May 15th	Click and Natter	Nov 13th	Click and Natter
May 23rd	'After Sunset' City lights, light trails, Christmas lights, illuminations, son et lumière, fireworks, astrophotography, light painting - your choice of night time subject(s).	21st Nov	'Flower Power' Not necessarily the ethos of the 1960's and 1970's. Perhaps a look forward to spring and summer.
May 30th	Image Storage and other Topics Members will discuss and describe how to ensure their images are securely stored and backed up	28th Nov	Underwater PhotographyTalk Roland Puleston-Jones will be showing some of his photographs taken underwater and revealing the type of equipment and skills he used to capture them .
Jun 12th	Click and Natter	Dec 4th	Click and Natter
June 20th	● 'Northamptonshire Architecture' ● Stately homes a plenty, fine examples of modern architecture and some photogenic industrial gems Northamptonshire has them all.	12th Dec	● 'Images of the Year' and Social Event ● No theme this month and instead of an Image of the Month, it's 'Images of the Year'. Your favourite three images taken this year.
June 27th	A Learning Curve - Justin Minns Justin returns to give us the benefit of his experience in becoming one of this country's leading landscape photographers.

  Show and Tell
 ● Prints Option
   Click and Natter
   Knowledge Night / Photo Shoot
   Special Event